Stone has said that he considers himself "a cinematic historian" and has called the assassination "the seminal event of my generation."

The Washington Post
May 19, 1991